DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bellhouse et al (US 6,328,714) in view of Castellano et al (US 5,730,723) and Schwebel et al (US 3,802,430).

Bellhouse teaches a needleless injector with a body (2), an initiation device (32), a compressed gas source (22), a reservoir (24), a housing (4), wherein the gas source is disposed in a cartridge (20) which may be inserted into the housing in an assembled state independently of the other elements in the circuit (Fig 7). The body further comprises an opening (56) which the cartridge closes off. Figs 1,3, and 7. The initiation device is a percussive device (32). The circuit forms a U-shape, with the cartridge forming an L-shape (Fig 1). Bellhouse does not teach the use of a pyrotechnic charge.

Castellano teaches that gas powered injectors are equivalents of pyrotechnic charges (Col 4 lines 25-28) but does not discuss the particulars of a pyrotechnic charge.

Art Unit: 3767

Schwebel teaches a disposable pyrotechnic injector with a charge (25), a frangible seal (between 25 and 43), a primer (28) and a percussion device (27), and expansion chamber (43).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the replaceable cartridge design of Bellhouse with the pyrotechnic charge of Schwebel since it is well known in the art, as taught by Castellano, that gas powered injectors and pyrotechnic injectors are functional equivalents and may be predictably substituted for one another.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
